Coeur Announces Positive Results of Stockholder Votes and Completes Acquisition of Paramount Gold and Silver

Chicago, Illinois - April 17, 2015 - Coeur Mining, Inc. (“Coeur” or the “Company”) (NYSE: CDE) announced that the proposals related to the previously announced acquisition of Paramount Gold and Silver Corp. (“Paramount”) were approved by both Coeur stockholders and Paramount stockholders and that the transaction has closed.

Based on the vote results at a special meeting of Coeur stockholders held today, Coeur’s proposal was approved by Coeur stockholders owning approximately 98.2% of shares voted. Based on the vote results at a special meeting of Paramount stockholders held today, Paramount’s proposal was approved by Paramount stockholders owning approximately 96.9% of shares voted.

In connection with today’s closing of the transaction, approximately 32.7 million shares of Coeur common stock were issued to Paramount stockholders and approximately $10 million in cash was contributed to Paramount Gold Nevada Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Paramount in which Coeur has retained a 4.9% interest.

Coeur expects to complete a mineral reserve and resource estimate for its Palmarejo mine in Mexico, which includes the newly acquired assets, and file a National Instrument 43-101 compliant technical report on www.sedar.com during the second quarter of 2015.

About Coeur

Coeur Mining is the largest U.S.-based silver producer and a significant gold producer with five precious metals mines in the Americas employing approximately 2,100 people. Coeur produces from its wholly owned operations: the Palmarejo silver-gold mine in Mexico, the San Bartolomé silver mine in Bolivia, the Rochester silver-gold mine in Nevada, the Kensington gold mine in Alaska, and the Wharf gold mine in South Dakota. The Company also has a non-operating interest in the Endeavor mine in Australia in addition to royalties on the Cerro Bayo mine in Chile, the El Gallo complex in Mexico, the Zaruma mine in Ecuador, and the Correnso mine in New Zealand. In addition, the Company has two silver-gold feasibility stage projects - the La Preciosa project in Mexico and the Joaquin project in Argentina. The Company also conducts ongoing exploration activities in Alaska, Argentina, Bolivia, Mexico, and Nevada. The Company owns strategic investment positions in several silver and gold development companies with projects in North and South America.
